FOUNDATION FOR UNIVERSAL RESPONSIBILITY
of His Holiness The Dalai Lama

The Foundation for Universal Responsibility of His Holiness the Dalai Lama, founded in November, 1990, is a not-for-profit, non-sectarian, non-denominational organization established with the funds from the Nobel Peace Prize awarded to His Holiness in 1989.

In the spirit of the Charter of the United Nations, the Foundation brings together men and women of different faiths, professions and nationalities, through a range of creative initiatives and mutually sustaining collaborations that seek to foster an inclusive, just and non-violent world. It also seeks to expand the network of globally committed citizens that are sensitive to responsibilities in an interdependent world.

The Foundation works at the intersection of the commitments of His Holiness the Dalai Lama- to serve all sentient beings to find personal happiness and for there to be peace on our fractured planet. He is widely celebrated as a pre-eminent spiritual leader and statesman for our troubled times.

Through its rich repertoire of programs, the Foundation works to nurture:

Universal Human Values

Capacities for Peaceful Coexistence & Non Violence

Interfaith Harmony & Understanding

Women's Equal Rights & Gender Justice

Environment

Conversations between Science & Buddhism

The preservation of Tibet's' civilizational heritage, in particular the Nalanda tradition

Its initiatives include WISCOMP (Women in Security, Conflict Management and Peace) that has been in the forefront on issues of gender, peace and security in the South Asian Region.

The Red Door (TRD) is a mental health initiative that believes that the discourse around emotional and mental well-being needs to be more inclusive, diverse and respectful of the myriad realities that we inhabit in our heads and lives.

TRD believes in holistic emotional wellness regardless of (psychiatric) labels and takes its inspiration from the struggles of people who have experienced extreme emotional states.

At the same time, our programs take from some of the most cutting-edge research in Psychology, Neuroscience and Resilience Studies. TRD takes cognizance of the United Nations' Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disability (UNCRPD) motto of "nothing about us, without us". It is also extremely conscious of the intersections between mental health on the one hand, and gender, disability, social justice and sexuality on the other.
